

*I Won't Tell, Promise: A Magician's Daughter Exposes
Her Father's Stage Secrets. And Why Not*
Discussion Guide

- 1) How were the secrets of her father's stage magic treated in the house? Discuss whether Katy's father over-reacted or if his actions make sense in the context of his profession.
- 2) Katy says good magicians create a feeling of awe and wonder. When you encounter something that feels magical, how does it make you feel? What is your definition of magic? Discuss whether a desire to feel magic is something innate within us.
- 3) At the end of the article Katy gives her true reason for revealing her father's magic tricks. What does that imply about Katy? She calls her actions "treacherous."
